- Regarding the action of Jesus’ disciples in the master’s hour of intense testing, Victory reminds us:

“Is it not written that they all fled? —all of them? And these were the closest to his heart. Did he not in that moment think of his mother and of Magdalene¹? (p. 255)

- Why do you suppose that Jesus turned to his mother and Magdalene?

Study Question 13

Study Question 23

- Please describe what will occur with the stepping down of ascended master Lanello into this octave? (p. 264)

Notes:

1. Mary Magdalene was an embodiment of Ascended Lady Master Magda, twin flame of Jesus. She was the first one to see Jesus after he had risen from the tomb. She also was the woman from whom Jesus cast out seven devils.
2. The fallen angels are those who followed Lucifer in the Great Rebellion and whose consciousness therefore “fell” to lower levels of vibration and awareness as they were by law “cast out into the earth” at the hand of Archangel Michael—constrained, by the karma of their disobedience to God and his Christ and their blasphemy of his children, to take on and evolve through dense physical bodies.
3. Author Elizabeth Clare Prophet explains in her book The Forbidden Mysteries of Enoch: The Untold Story of Men and Angels and discusses the fall of two separate groups of angels—the Nephilim and the Watchers. The Nephilim (“those who were made to fall”) are those who were “cast out” of heaven because of their prideful rebellion (Rev. 12:7-9). The Watchers, as revealed in the Book of Enoch, descended of their own accord through inordinate lust for the daughters of men.
