Study Question 1

- Beloved Victory clearly states his purpose for coming to the city of Louisville, Kentucky. What was his purpose for entering the city of Louisville? (p. 305)

Study Question 2

- Why is this master called an "angel of victory?" (p. 305)

Study Question 3

- In previous dictation Victory has described his flame in several ways. How did he describe the flame of victory in this dictation? (p. 305)

Study Question 4

- The master tells us that the impetus to life and the raising of the sacred fire to the crown chakra is delivered to us by a specific band of angels. (p. 305)
- Please identify this band of angels, where they come from, what words they cry out and affirm, and what gift they deliver to us. (p. 305)

Study Question 5

- In this dictation beloved Victory cries out to us and to America several times. After you read and listen to this dictation, please reflect on the one plea that touched your heart and soul. (pp. 306-307)
- Record your selection in your Victory Journal and write down why his words touched you.

Study Question 6

- Out of the deep love for our souls, the master points out that we are blessed to have a reminder in our midst. Who is this reminder that he speaks of and what is the reminder's purpose? (p. 306)

Study Question 7

- Victory tells us, "Blessed hearts, take that hand and walk with God in this hour." (p. 306)
- Then he speaks of an instrument of grace that is "needed in this hour when the blind leaders of the blind would take this nation far afield from the flaming sword of Victory...." (p. 306)
- What instrument of grace did the master refer to? (p. 306)

Study Question 8

- Beloved Victory tells us not to be alarmed about earth's conditions. What words of comfort does he extend to us? (p. 306)

Study Question 9

- Victory warns us: "The hour is perilous. The light is available and oncoming. May those who know the gift of free will and a path of light not neglect to hear our cry." (p. 306)
- Please record the master's words in your Victory Journal. Then reflect upon the free-will choices you currently face, determine which ones you will act upon on behalf of humanity, and then act. Record your reflections and decisions in your journal.
